

Former Torrance Man Heads Staff of Car Imports

Recently appointed to the office of general manager of Manhattan Motors, 2301 Sepulveda Blvd., Sam Boulding, former Torrance, resident, will head the business, dealing in imported cars.

Boulding, previous to this appointment, held the position as sales manager for Torrance Plymouth for two years, district manager of the Plymouth factory for one year, and was general manager of Fisher Imports, Inc., in Los Angeles.

Hailing from Paducah, Kentucky, Boulding has been a California resident since 1956.

He is married and the father of two boys, "Hank" and "Chip." Currently, "Chip" is starring in a movie for Walt Disney, portraying a football story.

BUSY AT WORK — Sam Boulding, former Torranceite, begins work as general manager of Manhattan Motors at 2301 Sepulveda Blvd. The lot deals with car imports.

Busload Treks to Hollywood

A Nat King Cole night at Hollywood Bowl will be witnessed by participants during a theatre bus trip planned Aug. 19 by the Torrance Recreation Department.

A bus, carrying the group to hear the popular vocalist, will leave the department headquarters, 1511 Cravens Ave., at 7 p.m.

Tickets, including transportation, are available for $2.75 and $3.50 per person. Reservations may be made by contacting the department, FA 8-4108.

A similar event is planned for Sept. 2, when a local group will visit a performance of the Royal Danish Ballet.

WHERE INTEREST LIES

A self-portrait of the American executive—based on a survey of 6,500 top businessmen conducted by Newsweek—reveals that he is just about as interested in religion and culture as in business news. The survey also shows that 72 per cent of these leaders are members of civic organizations.

Harbor College Promotes Two

The promotions of James F. Clines to Coordinator of Vocational Education and George W. Rainey to Chairman of the Technology Division, were announced today by Wendell C. Black, president of the college.

Clines, the former Chairman of the Technology Division since 1957, prior to his advancement to Coordinator of Vocational Education, joined the staff at Harbor College as instructor in engine technology in September, 1949, when the college opened. Before coming to Harbor College, Clines was associated with the U.S. Navy at Annapolis as an engineer and planner.

His new position as Coordinator of Vocational Education will require him to relate the technical curricula at the college to the needs of business and industry.
